Golf Course Description	SunRidge Canyon’s golf course unfolds around the rugged ridges and shady canyons unique to the desert mountains that divide Fountain Hills from Scottsdale, Arizona. The golf course gradually descends on the way out before doubling back to climb up the slope on the way in. This subtle elevation change lies at the heart of the dramatic golf experience at SunRidge Canyon. Golfers also discover that it wasn’t so much created by a bulldozer as it was carved out over eons by the relentless pressure of wind and water. Foster had the good sense to follow Mother Nature’s lead, and in the end, the beauty and challenge of SunRidge Canyon is unlike any other desert golf experience in the Valley of the Sun.
Clubhouse Description	SunRidge Canyon Golf Club’s 18,000-square-foot clubhouse was built to resemble a large Spanish hacienda from Arizona’s territorial days. It provides a full-service golf shop; locker facilities and conference rooms. SunRidge Canyon’s clubhouse is also home to the SunRidge Grill, an
